

Rev. Nathaniel J. Harpe

Nathaniel Harpe is a native of Cleveland, Ohio educated in Cleveland Area Schools. He graduated from Chanel High School in 1985. He has attended Ohio University, Maple Springs Baptist Bible College, and Howard Divinity School of continuing education. He relocated to Washington, DC in 1988. He has served in the U.S. Army as a Military Police Officer during Operation Desert Storm. He was called to the ministry in 1992 and licensed by New Commandment Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Stephen E. Tucker.

Reverend Harpe served for 15 years as an associate minister of New Commandment Baptist Church and for 10 of those years as the Youth Pastor and Children's Church Director. He is a pre-marital and marriage counselor and served along with his wife as the Couples Ministry Co-Leaders. Reverend Harpe also served as a volunteer Mentor for the District of Columbia Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (C.S.O.S.A.) mentoring program, as well as an instructor for Jobs Partnership of Greater Washington.

Reverend Nathaniel Harpe was called to Pastor Providence Baptist Church of Remington, VA. in April of 2010.

Reverend Harpe has been employed by the Federal Government since 1989. He lives in Washington, DC with his wife Iva of 15 years.

His hobbies are Travel, Hiking, Photography, Skiing, Skydiving, and Bicycling.